68 Corrections' employees honored during awards luncheon

Probation & Parole Supervisor & Warden of the Year to be named

Frankfort, KY -- Outstanding Corrections' employees were honored on Wednesday, September 6 at a luncheon held during the Kentucky Council on Crime and Delinquency (KCCD) 41st Annual Conference held September 6-8 at the Radisson Plaza Hotel in Lexington. Department of Corrections Commissioner Doug Sapp hosted the awards luncheon when 64 employees, including the Warden of the Year were named. The Commissioner Award recipients were recognized for their display of leadership and unparalleled work ethic.

KCCD is an organization comprised of criminal justice professionals throughout the state of Kentucky. Members represent all aspects of the system: Corrections, Juvenile Justice, Jailers, Magistrates, and Judge Executives. The organization has made many positive influences on individuals and communities who have benefited from scholarships, community service projects and donations to those in need.

This year's KCCD conference theme "The Pathway to Justice: A Salute to the Past and the Challenge of the Future!" allows reflection on all of the accomplishments of past criminal justice professionals and provides an avenue to many new and innovative ideas.

Some of the featured Speakers were: Jack Green, and Betty Adams Green, American Correctional Association; Gordon Graham, Leadership Kentucky; Rev. Patrick Delahanty, Catholic Commission; and Steve Morrison, National Corrections Technology Center. Many other informational and inspirational speakers were on the agenda.
